

How do I become a Special Needs Assistant SNA?

Step 1 – The Necessary Qualification

The Learning Pathway to become a Special Needs Assistant involves obtaining the Level 5 Special Needs Assisting Minor Award - QQI code 5N1786.

This award is obtained by completing this one module within the Childcare Curriculum.

Step 2 – Book your Modules

Click on the relevant tile on the website, or the link below to book your course.

Different learning delivery options are also detailed in this section.

Special Needs Assisting Level 5

Step 4 – Progression

If you decide to further progress your SNA Education the next award to consider is the Level 6 Special Needs Assisting Minor Award - QQI code 6N1957.

This award is obtained by completing this one module within the Childcare Curriculum.

To book click on the relevant module tile on the website or the link below.

Different learning delivery options are also detailed in this section.

Special Needs Assisting Level 6